WHO WE ARE...

Corporate Value Associates

CVA is a global management consultancy with a commitment to Corporate Value Mining - the definition, identification and realisation of value for an organisation. Through our network of 18 offices throughout the world, we have serviced our blue-chip clients for over 30 years by applying our problem solving frameworks to their often complex and critical problems.

In this atmosphere of continual challenge and creativity, our consultants are involved in developing innovative solutions that are customised for each client. This not only delivers results to our clients but provides growth and development opportunities for the consultants themselves, so that their work experience creates value for them.
