

A. INTRODUCTION

blintn is a Production Funding & Distribution Platform for Media Content.

We enjoy the culture and create new solutions professionally and smartly. We are sincerely finding people who will challenge and grow toward the wider world and create meaningful achievements, together with us. If you love the content, enjoy challenges, want to go beyond the domestic market, please don't hesitate to tell us your story. Please visit our website www.blintn.com

B. BUSINESS

Production Investment

We provide a funding platform service for media content productions. The production cost is funded most efficiently by calculating the investment ratio that fits the production's situation and plan.

Product Placement

We provide effective funding services by curating media content that meets the brand's marketing needs. We are working with various local and global brands based on the globalization trend of media content.

Distribution

We provide broadcast copyright and remake copyright transaction services for media content. We cooperate with various OTTs to curate content tailored to the needs of each region, discover good original content, and recommend remake copyright.
