USESCHOOL?

It is an online learning program where students learn American textbooks from local American teachers just like American students. It is a public education program that uses the program of Edgenuity, a representative education company in the U.S. with a 47-year history, 20,000 US schools in 38 countries around the world use the program. It provides curriculum from Kinder to U.S high school diploma, U.S. SAT, and AP, which is a liberal arts credit course in U.S. universities. It allows Korean students to experience what they are learning at a local school in the U.S. without having to study abroad.

What is a live class tutor?

Teacher's task (4-5 students) Live online group classes (mentoring + learning management)
(plays the role of the coordinator of the discussion class.)

1. Students participate in classes after prior learning and use school content to share their thoughts and discuss them.
2. The tutor conducts classes (review + discussion) based on the contents of the prepared study guide.
