

Internship – Equity Research Division, Daiwa Securities Korea

Position Description

Position: Equity Research Intern (Korea Internet, Telecom, Media, and Entertainment)

Duration: 6 months (August/September 2023 – February 2024); could be subject to extension

Opportunities

- Candidates will have the opportunity to learn the full procedure of conducting financial analysis on publicly-listed equities and relevant industries.
- Candidates will be provided the chance to access, modify, and create financial models.
- Candidates will have the opportunity to attend various sector and corporate events.
- Successful candidates could be offered return offers depending on position vacancies.

Responsibilities

- Compilation of market news and security filings for sector companies.
- Conducting market research and data analysis from databases and financial data sets.
- Assist the financial modelling and projection of the sector analyst.
- Carrying out administrative tasks and organizational duties.

Qualifications

- Candidates should have business level proficiency in the Korean and/or English language.
- Candidates should be a 3-4th year undergraduate student or fresh graduate, enrolled in a top-tier academic institution with preferred majors in economics, finance, or accounting.
- Candidates should have genuine interest and understanding of the Korean financial markets, with additional credit given for interest in information technology, games, and digital content.
- Candidates should have competency in handling MS Office applications (Word, Excel, PPT).

Application Method

Please send your English resume by 13 August 2023 to the following: hj.lee@kr.daiwacm.com

Candidates may attach supplementary material in PDF format alongside their application.

Please indicate your period of availability (ie. from 1 Sep 2023 – 1 Mar 2024) on your resume.

The Email Subject should be: [Daiwa Internship] Candidate Name

Applications will be processed on a rolling-basis.

* Based on Article 15 of the Personal Information Protection Act, we assume that applied candidates to have agreed upon the collection and utilization of one's personal information.

* Daiwa Securities Korea collects personal information for use in recruitment procedures and does not provide/utilize such information to the third party or for non-recruitment related purposes.

* All such personal information will be discarded upon the completion of the recruitment process.