

FOREST ASSET MANAGEMENT

Forest Asset Management is an investment firm with global pedigree specialized in research and investment on public equities primarily in China, Japan, Korea, and US. The team employs a disciplined, research-driven approach to fundamental stock selection, while taking a multi-year approach to investing. Forest Asset Management has a strong mission and values driven culture and a deliberate focus on mentoring its people and growing them professionally.

Position

Buy-side equity research full-time analyst (with 2/3-month probation period, starting time flexible)

Job Description

- Perform detailed research analysis on Korean and US companies and industries
- Perform rigorous analysis of company financial statements, regulatory filings, and related materials
- Build and maintain financial models
- Provide research notes, news/earning updates, and summary of research/industry reports on timely basis
- Discuss findings and conduct valuation analysis with senior analysts and portfolio manager
- Complete investment memo on designated companies

Qualifications

- Internship experience in Investment Banking, Equity Research, Hedge Fund, Private Equity, or Financial Services; other industries will also be considered (e.g. TMT, Auto, Pharma, Consumer, etc.)
- Fluent English required. Japanese or Chinese proficiency preferred (Speaking, Reading, Writing)
- Strong financial analytical skills
- Intellectually curious and passionate about investing and learning about companies

Location: IFC, Seoul, South Korea

How to apply: Please submit resume to Sue Gwon sgwon@forest-am.com