

Anchor Equity Partners (Private Equity) Research Analyst Recruitment (Korea Office)

About Anchor Equity Partners:

Founded in 2012 by a former partner of Goldman Sachs and two others, Anchor Equity Partners is a private equity firm that manages over US$5 billion of assets focusing primarily on control and significant minority investments in consolidation and growth opportunities predominantly in the North Asia Pacific Region. Anchor Equity Partners has a research and data-driven approach to deal sourcing, leveraging its local expertise, network and business intelligence tools.

In all of its investments, Anchor Equity Partners focuses on closely partnering with the right management teams and shareholders to work on strategic and operational issues. Through these partnerships, Anchor Equity Partners strives to create value for shareholders through synergies achieved through operational improvements, new revenue initiatives and corporatization.

Anchor Equity Partners currently manages 4 private equity funds comprised of global blue-chip investors. Through these funds, Anchor Equity Partners has made over 30 investments in Asia, including Korea, China and Japan, with numerous successful exits to date.

Notable investments by Anchor Equity Partners include:

- Geo-Young: Control consolidation creating Korea's largest nationwide pharmaceutical distributor and wholesaler, and its subsequent sale to a global private equity firm
- Eco Green Holdings: Control consolidation building an integrated waste management platform in Korea covering the full spectrum of waste treatment from incineration to landfill, and subsequent sale to a global private equity firm
- Kakao Entertainment: Growth investment in the formation and aggregation of Korea's largest entertainment company with businesses encompassing music creation and streaming, video-on-demand, web-comics, drama/movie production and talent management
- Sunsea Parking: Growth investment into China's leading parking management services provider
- Kakao Piccoma: Growth investment into Japan's largest mobile content platform providing web comics
