

[Internship Opportunity at Rylson Private Equity]

Firm Profile

Established in 2018, Rylson Private Equity (“Rylson”) is an independent private equity firm focusing on buy-out investment in South Korea. Rylson’s team consist of investment professionals with PE investment / IB / Management Consulting backgrounds. As Rylson has been building its presence with successful buy-out and special situation deals, Rylson’s team is seeking to hire an intern who can work for 6 months starting ASAP.

Responsibilities

- ✓ Conduct research, analysis and evaluation of a variety of PE investment opportunities
- ✓ Participate in drafting various PPT materials and IM for both internal and external purposes
- ✓ Assist DD (Due Diligence) process by actively managing the transaction process with bankers, accountants, lawyers and consultants

Qualifications

- ✓ Superior analytical, financial and problem-solving skills; Proficiency across Excel / PPT / Word
- ✓ Keen understanding of the M&A transaction process
- ✓ Strong work ethic and excellent attention to detail
- ✓ Ability to work well under pressure
- ✓ Graduates or those expected to graduate in the first half of 2025

Application Procedure

Candidate who are interested in applying for the internship opportunity please submit your resume in English to us(sandy.lee@rylsonpe.com) by February 10, 2025, In the subject of your application e-mail, please use following format: [Internship Application] Your Name. Selected candidates will be invited to interviews with our team of Rylson.

Thank you.
