At Morgan Stanley, our employees are our greatest asset. A career here means working alongside the best and brightest, in an environment where you are supported and empowered to achieve your full potential.

If you are ready to immerse yourself in a collaborative environment centered around rigor, humility and partnership, then join us at the 2026 Morgan Stanley Japan Early Insights Series.

Achieve Your Full Potential

This series introduces students to our collaborative apprenticeship culture, before diving into the internship opportunities available in our Tokyo office within the Finance, Institutional Equity Sales & Trading, Investment Banking, Quantitative Finance, Research, and Technology Divisions.

Through interactive workshops and an immersive simulation, you'll discover the breadth of opportunities available and develop skills to shape your future career. Open to participants from all backgrounds, this event is designed to provide invaluable insights and help kickstart your career.

Eligibility

- Students graduating from an overseas university (outside of Japan) between October 2027 and September 2028
- Minimum proficiency: English (fluent) and Japanese (intermediate)
- Open to all degree disciplines; students with limited exposure to financial services are encouraged to register

Why should you attend?

- Learn about diverse career options at Morgan Stanley and identify a path aligned with your skills and interests
- Attend virtual immersive workshops to deepen your understanding of roles within an Investment Bank
- Build your professional network and sharpen your skills
- Students planning to travel to Tokyo this summer will be invited to visit our Tokyo headquarters
